

THE MIDDLE AGES PRESENTED LIKE NEVER BEFORE!
New Medieval World: Culture and Conflict Magazine Launches May 2022

Zutphen, The Netherlands – 5 May 2022

An exciting, new magazine about the Middle Ages hits the shelves this spring. Medieval World: Culture and Conflict brings a bold, fresh, and colourful look to a crucial period in world history, upon which our own modern civilisation is built.

Medieval World: Culture and Conflict expands on the contents of the popular Medieval Warfare magazine, which established a loyal readership among fans of history interested in campaigns and conflicts of the sixth to the fourteenth centuries. The new magazine builds upon that legacy. It will appeal to a wider audience by bringing to light the rich history and material culture of the Middle Ages through well-researched and lavishly illustrated articles written by leading scholars and early career researchers.

Each issue centres on a theme that provides detailed coverage of a particular topic, as well as special articles on key historical figures, events, legends, and monuments. Covering a broad range of time periods and geographical regions, the magazine is bursting with content for everyone interested in learning more about the vibrant cultures and moments of conflict in the Middle Ages.

With content written by experts, Medieval World: Culture and Conflict brings history and material culture to life for all readers. The articles are illustrated with images of sites and objects from collections around the world, as well as original maps, drawings, and paintings.

Each issue also features commissioned colour artworks by several of the world's leading illustrators who recreate key events in history – a major differentiator of magazines published by Karwansaray.

Accessibly written and splendidly illustrated, the magazine highlights the value of textual and visual records in reconstructing the rich and multifaceted historical and cultural dimensions of the Middle Ages.

Medieval World: Culture and Conflict is being released by Karwansaray Publishers, which also publishes the popular Ancient History, Ancient Warfare and WS&S magazines. Located in The Netherlands, Karwansaray publishes its magazine in English for the widest possible international readership.

Priced affordably, each issue retails for $12.75 in USA, €8.50 in Europe, and £6.99 in UK. For a free review copy, please contact the editor.
